

The Ohio State University
Department of Dance

Vera J. Blaine
blaine.2@osu.edu
Autumn 2012

DIRECTED TEACHING DANCE

3 units

Teaching Assistant for D 3202

Responsibilities:

1. Physically participates in the classes: demonstrates compositional assignments; offers verbal feedback to individuals; participates in the class conversations.
2. Organizes and leads the Friday workshop: reviews assignments; leads improvisations and conversations that help clarify studies; introduces new material, if needed; coaches individual students; takes attendance: monitors requirement of participating in 13 out of 15 sessions.
3. E-mails professor a summary of the work of each student in attendance at workshop session.
4. Occasionally available for private coaching outside of the workshop session.
5. Demonstrates completed solo studies, if needed.
6. Places books on closed reserve in the Music & Dance Library; orders copies for purchase at the SBX bookstore, if needed.
7. Records studies throughout the quarter: reserves camera.
8. Meets weekly with the professor to discuss course content, students' progress and Friday workshop.
9. Teaches the class if professor is absent; starts the class when professor is late.
10. Meets with the professor immediately after the final showings during final's week to assist with student evaluation.